

MEDICAL STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

Apply now! It's free!

The New York Council on Child and Adolescent Psychiatry \(NYCCAP\), comprising about 900 members, focuses on providing child and adolescent psychiatrists the resources they need in order to promote mentally healthy children, adolescents, and families. It promotes free membership to medical students interested in learning more about child and adolescent psychiatry. By joining, you will also become a member of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry \(AACAP\), a professional medical organization comprised of more than 9,000 child and adolescent psychiatrists.

Child and adolescent psychiatry:

- Is a stimulating and rapidly evolving field
- Uses a knowledge of neurological, biological, psychological and social factors to treat patients
- Provides opportunities for prevention and early intervention to improve quality of life

Child and adolescent psychiatrists:

- Make a major difference in children's lives
- Spend meaningful time with their patients
- Combine art and science to treat their patients' emotional, behavioral and physical illnesses
- Establish long-term relationships with patients and their family members
- Fulfill the tremendous needs of millions of children and adolescents suffering from mental illness

The field offers opportunities that support career and family, such as:

- Highest number of job offers per resident on graduation
- Highly competitive salaries
- Excellent work-life balance
- Flexibility with different practice environments including part time work
- Global opportunities

Membership is free for medical students and $70 for residents. Membership benefits include:

- Free subscriptions to the Journal of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, and AACAP News
- Mentorship, fellowship, and award opportunities
- Invitations to all NYCCAP events (at no cost)
- Discounts on AACAP meetings and publications
- Representation on national advocacy issues
- Access to online resources
- Much, much more!
